

The Book of Revelation

Currents in British Research on the Apocalypse Edited by Garrick V. Allen,
Ian Paul and Simon P. Woodman

[The Book of Revelation]

Published in English.

This volume represents the diverse range of research interests in the Book of Revelation operative in current British research, examining questions of genre, structure, composition, scriptural reuse, exegesis, thematic issues, and reception history. This collection, from a distinguished and diverse group of senior and junior scholars, is accessible to a broad range of readers, and is relevant for a number of critical conversations pertaining not only to the Apocalypse, but also to broader avenues of discourse in New Testament and Early Christian studies.
