

Auslegung der Bibel in orthodoxer und westlicher Perspektive

Akten des west-östlichen Neutestamentler-/innen-Symposiums von Neamt vom 4.-11. September 1998 Edited by James D. G. Dunn, H Klein, Ulrich Luz and Vasile Mihoc

In the autumn of 1998 a first symposium of orthodox, Catholic and Protestant New Testament scholars was held in the Theological Academy of the Neamt monastery in Romania. Well-known scholars from Eastern and Western Europe dealt with fundamental questions of biblical hermeneutics. Their purpose was not to ignore their confessional preconceptions but rather to use them for understanding the Bible. The articles represent an ecumenical dialog and a new search for a Christological hermeneutics which wishes to see the New Testament today as a book of the church. The texts are in German or English, and a short summary of each text is given in the other language.
