Das Unrecht des Bürgers

Grundlinien der Allgemeinen Verbrechenslehre

The general doctrine of injustice is the core of penology and also links criminal law to practical philosophy. Michael Pawlik gives a comprehensive description of this pivotal subject. In doing so, he combines discourses from philosophy and the history of dogma with an analysis of current developmental trends in criminal law to create a novel concept.

Michael Pawlik ist Inhaber des Lehrstuhls für Strafrecht, Strafprozessrecht und Rechtsphilosophie an der Universität Freiburg.
