

Udo Schnelle

Die getrennten Wege von Römern, Juden und Christen

Religionspolitik im 1. Jahrhundert n. Chr.

Udo Schnelle shows that the question of when Christianity can be called an independent religion remains controversial. Did Judaism and Christianity part after a certain period of time, or were they never really together in the first place? What decisions determined the development in the arena of theology and politics? And which role did the Romans play as the decisive political, cultural, and religious force?

Udo Schnelle Geboren 1952; Studium, Promotion und Habilitation in Göttingen; Pastor der Hannoverschen Landeskirche; 1986-92 Professor für Neues Testament in Erlangen, 1992-2017 in Halle; seit 2017 im Ruhestand.
