

German and East Asian Perspectives on Corporate and Capital Market Law: Investors versus Companies

Edited by Holger Fleischer, Hideki Kanda, Kon Sik Kim and Peter Mülbert

[German and East Asian Perspectives on Corporate and Capital Market Law: Investors versus Companies]

Published in English.

This volume is based on updated presentations delivered at a symposium held in 2017 at Seoul National University. It follows two earlier conference volumes and shares their goal to stimulate the scholarly exchange between company law academics in Germany, China, Japan and South Korea which can be traced back to the late nineteenth century. Contributions from all four jurisdictions include papers on shareholder activism and the disclosure of substantial shareholdings as well as studies on takeover law addressing key questions such as the mandatory bid rule, control premiums, hostile takeovers and pre- and post-bid defences.

Peter Mülbert is Professor of Civil Law, Commercial and Banking Law; Fellow, Gutenberg Research College, and Director of the Center for German and International Law of Financial Services at the University of Mainz.

Holger Fleischer ist Direktor am Max-Planck-Institut für ausländisches und internationales Privatrecht in Hamburg.

Kon Sik Kim is Professor of Commercial Law at the Seoul National University School of Law, Korea.

Hideki Kanda is emeritus Professor at the University of Tokyo and Professor at the Gakushuin University Law School, Japan.
